

PETER HINDLE
MBE
BMF Chairman

- Aged 64 and happily married to Jan.
- Two sons –
 - Roger, who is a fully qualified electrician
 - James who graduated from Loughborough University and currently works as General Manager for Neville Lumb, part of the Saint-Gobain group.
- Four grandchildren, Chloe, William, Alex & Olivia.

- Awarded an MBE in 2009 for services to the Building Industry and Charity
- Honorary Degree of Doctor of Birmingham City University awarded in 2012 for outstanding business achievements, charitable work and ongoing support for Birmingham City Business School

- 1979-1982 Yard, Sales Operative, Jewson, Fleetwood
- 1982-1988 Branch Manager, Jewson Fleetwood and Lytham St Annes
- 1994-1997 Operations Manager/Director, Jewson
- 1999-2013 Managing Director, Jewson
- 2003-2013 Chief Executive Officer, Saint-Gobain Building Distribution UK & Ireland

2009-2016

- General Delegate for Saint-Gobain UK, Ireland and South Africa operations representing around 10% of the Group's turnover, employing 20,000 people
- Appointed Chairman of Saint-Gobain business units in UK, Ireland & South Africa
- Appointed Senior Vice President, Compagnie de Saint-Gobain responsible for sustainable habitat strategy

Other Roles

- World Green Building Council Advisory Board, representing Saint-Gobain
- Awarded Lifetime Achievement Award at the BMN (Builders Merchants News) Awards
- 2015 – Chairman of the Confederation of Timber Industries (CTI)
- Member of the Institute of Wood Science
- Member of the Cranfield School of Management Advisory Board

Historical understanding of our roots, the way the industry operates; customers' needs, wants and desires; the evolution of our industry as it finds itself today at a stage of significant change as the E-revolution gathers momentum offering risks and opportunities.

NOW RETIRED

Enjoys cycling and golf and follows Manchester United Football Club

Remains Chairman of the BMF and has set up a consultancy business

www.peterhindlembecconsultants.com